

TRIUMPH CLUB N.I.

SPRING RUN Sun 5th April 2009

This being our first run of the year, we would like you to come along and if possible bring a friend either as your passenger or in their own car [any make, any model, any age] we will do our utmost to make them most welcome.

Please assemble at McDonalds' Car Park, Sprucefield at 1.30pm for a prompt 2.00 pm move off. We will drive through scenic areas finishing at around 6.00pm at the Ballymac Hotel for an optional two course meal. If you do not want to take the meal, which will be priced at around £14 per head, then feel free to say goodbye on arrival at the hotel and make your way home.

A varied menu will be available at the start which we will collect with all monies to allow the hotel to have places and food prepared for our arrival.

If for any reason your classic car is not ready for this date feel free to come in your modern car and follow at the rear of the convey.

Although there will be no entry fee for this event please return your entry by the 28th March to allow us to access numbers and make final arrangements.

Please pass an additional entry form on to a friend as we are asking for as large an entry as possible at this year's opening event
