2019 Charity:

The Welcome Organisation provides a range of potentially life-saving services to around 1,400 people affected by homelessness across greater Belfast every year.

The Welcome Organisation adopts a non-judgemental approach to addressing homelessness issues. All of these services are based on the principles of harm reduction delivered through low-threshold services. They are recognised for accepting people 'where they are at' as opposed to where others think they should be.

Services include, Drop-in centre, Street Outreach, Floating Support as well as Crisis Accommodation for Women and much more...
